

John E. Marquis

Partner

Yardley, PA

(267) 794-6100 direct dial

(215) 579-9248 fax

jmarquis@hillwallack.com

Practice Areas

Workers' Compensation

Overview

John E. Marquis is a partner in the Yardley, Pa. office of Hill Wallack LLP. He is a member of the Workers' Compensation practice group.

Mr. Marquis represents commercial insureds in all aspects of workers' compensation defense, including trial work and appellate advocacy. In addition to litigating claims, he assists his clients in developing best practices to prevent and mitigate liability, successfully defend unwarranted claims and to reach favorable resolutions when necessary.

Mr. Marquis is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania (1987). He earned his J.D. from Temple University School of Law and his B.S. from St. Joseph's University in Food Marketing.

Representative Matters

Mr. Marquis' client base includes large corporations in aeronautics manufacturing, defense contractors, health care, behavioral health, in-home care, retail, waste disposal, maintenance and transportation.

He has assisted employers and carriers with a multitude of issues and has proven expertise in complex claims including:

- Occupational disease
- Specific loss and amputation claims
- Subrogation
- Psychological claims
- Hearing loss claims
- Asbestos litigation
- Fatal claims
- Medical Utilization Review

Leadership

- Chair, Education Committee, Philadelphia's Workers' Compensation Claims Association
- Faculty Member, Insurance Society of Philadelphia
- Instructor, Legal Issues in Workers' Compensation

Presentations & Publications

Mr. Marquis teaches continuing legal education classes to attorneys and regularly presents seminars to clients on current issues and topics in his areas of expertise.

Panel Member, "As the Claim Turns", Annual Bureau of Workers' Compensation Conference (June 2012)

Bar Admissions

Pennsylvania

Education

St. Joseph's University

Temple University School of Law