Overview

Ozge Otarsi-McCue is a partner in the Cedar Knolls, NJ office of Hill Wallack LLP, where she is a member of the Banking and Financial Services, Real Estate and Creditors' Rights/Bankruptcy practice groups.

Ms. Otarsi-McCue has specialized knowledge in complex financial transactions and focuses her practice in representing lending institutions and borrowers in connection with commercial, construction and purchase money financings, including those related to apartment buildings, retail establishments, shopping centers and mixed-use commercial developments. Her practice also includes handling commercial acquisitions, dispositions and residential purchase and sale transactions. She also assists public housing authority clients with a variety of complex debt and equity financing matters, including project-based rental assistance under the Rental Assistance Demonstration program.

Ms. Otarsi-McCue also routinely represents creditors and financial institutions in foreclosure and bankruptcy matters and makes regular appearances in bankruptcy, chancery and federal courts throughout the State of New Jersey, advocating for lender's rights.

Ms. Otarsi-McCue received her Juris Doctorate degree from Widener University School of Law and is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Seton Hall University where she received her Bachelor's degree in English. While attending Widener, Ms. Otarsi-McCue clerked for the Office of Federal Operations at the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission in Washington D.C. and interned for The Honorable Ida K. Chen of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas. She also served as President of Widener's Public Interest Law Alliance for the 2008-2009 academic year.

Ms. Otarsi-McCue is licensed to practice law in the State of New Jersey (2010), the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey (2010) and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (2020).
